Titan Tankers Sink Opposition With Big Wins

Practicing in North's fantastic swimming pool paid off for the Titan Tankers as they waterlogged their opponents nine times while only losing three matches. Coach Terry Hitchcock's swimmers proved real strength in a three way meet with Belmont and Yorktown when they piled up 95 points against the combined total of losers' 73.

Some area experts and spectators have forecast great things in store for the team as well as certain individuals. Olympic potential was the observation of some as they witnessed the power of the Titans.

Bill Gruppe was named Outstanding Freshman Swimmer, and Chip Alexander was the Sophomore Outstanding Swimmer. Three juniors, Charles Cross, Frank Eavey, and Gary Leff, shared outstanding honors.

1971-1972: 10-3

Tankers Splash Through Season

Stroking their way to victory, the Northside swimming team, better known as the Titanic Titan Tankers, ended the swimming season with a 10-3 record. The tankers took second place in the first Olympic Conference championship, and they placed second in the sectional, falling to Kokomo Haworth and Anderson High School.

Swimmers Churn to 12-0 Season

Taking a well-deserved rest between events is senior Jim Watkins.

Titan swim coach Mr. Howard Bunch and his team set 8 goals at the beginning of their season, and all of these goals were accomplished in the end. The tankers chalked up a very impressive dual meet record of 12-0.

Taking first in the conference and first in the Carmel Invitational, the swimmers showed great improvement.

Heading the team were seniors Jim Watkins, Jay Allardt, Bill Gruppe, Stan Griner, Jeff Martin, and James Ivy.

Posting victories over North Central and Anderson showed the potential that came through when "Howdy's Bunch" took the sectional with 285 points and went on to place eighth in the state. Jim Watkins, Jay Allardt, Bill Gruppe, Jim Hall, Tom Schranz, and Greg Beyerl represented North in the state meet.

North's varsity swim team, led by the state champion 400 yard relay team of seniors Brian Allardt and Phil Rudolph, junior Kent Alexander, and sophomore Peter Voss, finished fourth in the IHSAA state finals at Culver Military Academy. This is the highest finish ever for a Titan swim team. The tankers won the Anderson Sectional and finished with a 7-2 record, and also won the Olympic Conference and Carmel Invitational.

At the winter sports banquet, first year coach Al Anderson presented senior Brian Allardt with the outstanding swimmer award. The outstanding diver award went to sophomore Chip Weiss. Sophomore Tom Troyan received the most improved award, and the Rookie of the Year award went to freshman Steve Reed. The Unsung Heros' award went to seniors Frank Voss and Craig Reed. Coach Anderson will have 12 returning lettermen for next year's season.
